Start Out On The Right Track

- Stay compliant with OSHA's training requirements
- Show your newly hired employees that you care about safety
- Quick and easy online safety training that is conducted live
- New hires can ask questions throughout the presentation
- Keep your company's training documentation up to date
- New hire PowerPoint Presentations are also available

How Does it Work?

- We'll develop a PowerPoint (PPT) presentation based on your company's existing written safety manuals
- The presentation will provide an overview of your safety program
- We'll schedule a time for the training and email the meeting log in and call in information
- New hires will need a phone, a computer with a good internet connection, and the safety program binders
- The remote training will be conducted by one of our safety professionals in about an hour
- Attendee(s) will sign the new hire training logs located in the back of the programs
- Our instructor will encourage the new hire to ask questions and make sure they understand
- LSCI will document your company's new hire trainings as continued acts of good faith OSHA compliance

Terms & Pricing

- $250.00 for the first training (includes PPT development), and only $150.00 for the trainings thereafter
- Available to existing LSCI clients who utilize our health and safety programs
- Multiple employees can sit in and be trained at no additional fee
- Provide refresher training for existing workers who may have missed the on-site safety training session
